Dear Friend & Supporter of Epsilon Omega Foundation, Inc.:

As the president of the Foundation, I am pleased to invite you to participate and support our premier annual fundraising event, the Pink & Green Scholarship Gala. This scholarship event raises needed funds to assist Baltimore high school graduates offset their out of pocket costs for college tuition and books. The 2011 Pink & Green Scholarship Gala will take place on Saturday, June 18th at Martins West Baltimore, Maryland from 8pm - Midnight. We are asking for your support of this event by either becoming a corporate sponsor, donating a "top notch" item to our Pink & Green Scholarship Gala Silent Auction, or by placing an ad in our souvenir journal. Select one, two, or all three methods for supporting the continual learning opportunities for our local college bound youth.

Last year, according to the Maryland Higher Education Commission 2010 Data Book, the average cost of tuition for students in the Baltimore Metropolitan area was $169 per credit for Community Colleges and $6,444 for full time students attending public four-year institutions with at least 12 credits. This year, the figure is even higher. Given the state of economic affairs today, I don't have to tell you of the hardship educational costs place on families already struggling to make basic expenses. To help alleviate this burden, I ask that you please partner with the Epsilon Omega Foundation, in giving these families and students a helping hand. Join us in our continued effort and mission to support eager learners with their educational pursuits by becoming one of our premier Pink & Green Gala financial donors.

The Epsilon Omega Foundation, Inc. is a non-profit and tax exempt, 501 (c) (3), corporation established to acquire resources to support and promote programs and services to meet the changing needs of citizens of the Baltimore metropolitan community and beyond. Because we are tax exempt, portions of your donations are tax deductible. The Epsilon Omega Foundation, created and incorporated in 1991, has been supported over the years by contributions from organizations like yourself, foundation members, friends and grants from public and private sources. Many of our members are also some of your most loyal employees, partners, and customers.

As you peruse the enclosed corporate sponsorship levels, silent auction donor forms, and souvenir journal ad information, please feel free to contact Gala Co-Chair & Silent Auction Chair, Dr. Tonja L. Ringgold at 410-627-6743 (email: aka1ad82f@aol.com) or Corporate Sponsorship Chair Lisa Foust at 443-310-3669 (email: lisa.foust@us.army.mil) if you have any questions regarding how you can be a part of this worthwhile fundraising event.

On behalf of the entire Epsilon Omega Foundation Board, I would like to thank you for supporting our students in the Baltimore area. I look forward to partnering with you.

Sincerely,

Cheryl L. Frazier

EPSILON OMEGA FOUNDATION SILENT AUCTION

The Pink & Green Gala is the premiere scholarship fundraiser for Epsilon Omega Foundation whose mission is to meet the challenges of the community through service, education, and cultural development.

SILENT AUCTION PROCESS OTHER NOTES OF INFORMATION

About the items and initial process

1. The Silent Auction will open at 8:00 p.m. and close at 11:00 p.m.
2. All auction items have a bid sheet with a minimum bid and bid increment printed on each sheet.
3. Minimum bids generally start at a substantial discount to the retail value of the item to encourage lively bidding.

Bidding on an auction item

1. If you are the initial bidder, you must enter the minimum bid permitted for that item and write your name, assigned bidder number, and seating table number next your bid amount.
2. If someone has already bid on an item, and you wish to enter a bid, you must enter an amount higher in accordance to the stated minimum increment for that item (i.e., increment amount is $5.00 higher than previous bided amount)
3. Bidding will continue until auction item sheets are pulled indicating that bidding is closed.

Settling your account and claiming items

1. When the Silent Auction is over, an Epsilon Omega Gala Hostess will close the table and winning bids will be posted.
2. As a bidder, it is your responsibility to check the final winning bids to see if you are the successful bidder.
3. If you are the successful bidder, you will proceed to the registration table to check out your item(s).
4. All auction items must be paid for in full by cash or check at the end of the event. Checks should be made payable to the EPSILON OMEGA FOUNDATION.

PLEASE NOTE:

1. All auction Items are sold "as is." The success of the auction depends on the goodwill of the donors, and all buyers should carefully observe the terms stated on the bid sheets and gift certificates. If applicable, auction items must be redeemed by the date specified on the certificate.
2. All sales are final. In event of a dispute, Epsilon Omega Foundation will have sole and final discretion to determine winning bidder.
